

Who Am I?

A fun guessing game where players use yes or no to guess the identity of the vegetable

10-15 minutes

How to play

Players receive a sticky note or card with the vegetable name or image.

Players circulate and ask yes or no questions until everyone has identified the name on their own note or card.

Or...

Each player takes turns with other players asking yes or no questions, until the player with the note or card guesses the identity of the vegetable.

A specific time or number of questions is given to the players. Ten questions are usually enough.

Game Rules

- Do not look at the name on your card.
- Start by asking questions thinking about shape, size and letters.
- If you think you know the name of the vegetable, say so.

Example questions

For more example questions, see sheet 2.

Do you have a stalk?

Do you grow in a pod?

Are you small?

Do I have to cook you before eating you?

Do I need to peel you?

- Works with any size group
- Use to teach critical thinking to young learners
- Use once a week during the Eat Them to Defeat Them campaign, featuring the veg of the week, and then introduce other vegetables in further weeks

More example questions

KS2

Who Am I?

Do you have 3 syllables?

Are you round?

Do you grow in the ground?

Can you be grated?

Would I eat you with a roast dinner?

Would I eat you in a salad?

Are you green?

Are you crunchy?

Do you rhyme with tree?

Do you have a c in the middle of your name?

Are you long?